Steadfastly and Successfully Implement
“One Country, Two Systems”
and Strengthening Our Governance Systems

Background

In the report to the 20th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, President Xi Jinping stated that “the principle of ‘One Country, Two Systems’ is a great innovation of socialism with Chinese characteristics. It has proven to be the best institutional arrangement for ensuring sustained prosperity and stability in Hong Kong and Macao after their return to the Motherland. This principle must be adhered to over the long term.” It is evident that the “One Country, Two Systems” principle is not only the best solution to the historical issues of Hong Kong but also the optimal arrangement for the city to maintain long-term prosperity and stability, given its advantages of great vitality and institutional superiority.

With full support from our Country, we enacted the Safeguarding National Security Ordinance in March, accomplishing the constitutional responsibility and historic mission after a wait of 26 years, 8 months and 19 days. The ordinance complements the Law of the People’s Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region seamlessly, forming a comprehensive legal system with effective enforcement mechanisms for safeguarding national security. In last year’s Policy Address, I announced the establishment of the Working Group on Patriotic Education to enhance education of our Country’s history, culture and current affairs on different fronts, promoting patriotism and ensuring its continuity for generations to come. Moreover, we are improving the setup of various decision-making regimes, distribution of powers and responsibilities as well as implementation mechanisms, to enhance our governance systems. Taking these initiatives together, we have built a result-oriented governance culture characterised by readiness to shoulder responsibilities, deliver good results and team spirit, for the maximum benefit of the people of Hong Kong.

“One Country” is like the roots of a tree. For a tree to flourish, its roots must run deep and strong. We will continue to fully, faithfully and resolutely implement the principles of “One Country, Two Systems”, “Hong Kong people administering Hong Kong” and a high degree of autonomy. We will remain vigilant against undercurrents to uphold the absolute principle of safeguarding our Country’s sovereignty, security and development interests, and will continue to strive to improve governance and maintain our city’s prosperity and stability.

Steadfastly and Successfully Implement “One Country, Two Systems” and Strengthening Our Governance Systems
