

Annex: Indicators for Specified Tasks

1. In the 2024 Policy Address, I set a total of 138 indicators for specified tasks, of which 72 were new. This has helped foster the Government's result-oriented culture and enabled me to monitor work progress and outcomes more effectively.
2. I have reviewed the implementation of these indicators, including "tasks completed" (covering several tasks which are completed by now but with delay in the interim), "tasks on track", and even "tasks exceeding targets"<sup>26</sup>. For the three indicators that have yet to be completed as scheduled, they all have reasonable causes for the delay. Their positions are as follows:

(i)	Take forward the development of the Northern Metropolis by announcing specific suggestions in Q1 2025 on the formation of a company by the Government for operating a pilot industry park in an NDA.	While preparing the Budget in February this year, the Government noted that a tender was in progress for the lot adjacent to the sites for the industry park in Hung Shui Kiu to be rolled out by the DEVB. Since announcing the actual site location of the industry park and details of the company may compromise the fairness of the tender exercise, the Financial Secretary's consent was obtained to release details of the company for the pilot industry park after completion of the tender exercise. After reviewing the situation, the Government considered that the said lot, which had been put up for tender and was located on the skirt outside the industry park in Hung Shui Kiu, should better be incorporated into the industry park to achieve economies of scale. The Government announced, on 21 July this year, the cancellation of the tender for the lot and the new proposed direction. The DEVB is revising the planning for the expanded new industry park and adjusting details of the park company. The DEVB will report to the Working Group on Devising Development and Operation Models to be established, as announced in this year's Policy Address, and announce the proposal within this year.

<sup>26</sup> Such as the FSTB shall facilitate 200 family offices by end-2025 but it has completed the task in August; and the CEDB shall attract 1 130 companies by end-2025, yet the indicator has been met ahead of schedule reaching 1 365 companies, bringing about $175.4 billion of investment and 19 900 job opportunities.

(ii)	Expedite urban renewal by formulating in the first half of 2025 policy proposals on the use of newly developed land to drive large-scale urban redevelopment projects.	After examining the proposals submitted by the DEVB in mid-2025, the Chief Executive considered that the measures related to the URA's Flat-for-Flat Scheme were not specific enough, and that the incentives targeting areas with a more pressing need for redevelopment could be enhanced, so that private redevelopment projects could be taken forward more effectively. The Chief Executive directed the DEVB to further study the matter and submit refined proposals within two months. The DEVB submitted refined proposals in late August this year, which were agreed by the Chief Executive and incorporated for promulgation in paragraphs 219(ii) and (iii) of this year's Policy Address.
(iii)	Set up the Teacher Professional Development Fund in the 2024/25 school year (i.e. from September 2024 to August 2025) to continuously enhance the training and exchange programmes for teachers.	In the Budget announced in February 2025, the Government proposed revising the financial arrangements for six seed capital funds, each with a relatively large unspent balance, as well as reviewing the financial arrangements for 36 funds. Since the review would take time to complete and its results might have a chain effect on the Teacher Professional Development Fund, the EDB considered that it could use its existing resources to provide teacher professional development programmes until the 2027/28 school year. The EDB therefore halted the setting up of the fund and reported the situation at the meeting of the LegCo Panel on Financial Affairs in April 2025. Its action was supported by the Chief Executive and the Financial Secretary.

3. In addition, last year's Policy Address put forward to complete the statutory environmental impact (EIA) procedures for the reclamation works under the Kau Yi Chau Artificial Islands project within this year. While the relevant EIA Report was made ready last year, given the implementation programme of the Kau Yi Chau project has been slowed down and no specific arrangements have been made, the DEVB, after reviewing the situation, considers it inappropriate to proceed with the relevant statutory EIA procedures at this stage, but will complete the ongoing studies so that the analysis and information acquired may be retained for reference. The Financial Secretary and I accept and agree to it.
4. For this year's Policy Address, I have set a total of 140 indicators, including 79 new indicators, and 61 indicators introduced in the 2024 Policy Address that are in progress and still valid. Details are as follows:
