Better Housing for All

香港特別行政區政府
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE HONG KONG SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE REGION

The Government is publishing this year a series of booklets covering our Strategic Policy Objectives. These booklets provide clear descriptions of the initiatives being taken and the resulting benefits. In some cases, quantified targets are given. In others, these will be developed over time.

This booklet spells out the Government's initiatives on "Better Housing for All". It will form the basis for a White Paper on our ten-year Long Term Housing Strategy to be published later this year.

“ My Administration has responded vigorously to the challenge developed a realistic production programme and has revised the procedures for land and housing development to ensure that absolute priority is given to housing.”
